Route 66 Street Market in Downtown Joliet

We Need You!! In 2016, we successfully revamped and improved our Farmers Market by moving to Wednesday evenings and including beer and music. We're sticking with the same plan this year, just with a new name!

Once again our market will be held every Wednesday evening from 4:00 – 9:00PM on Chicago Street, between Jefferson and Van Buren Streets. The market will be held once a week from June 7th through August 9th.

Our move from calling the market a “farmers” market to a “street” market does not mean a change to any vendors we have worked with in the past. We still want you, farmers and food vendors! Just like last year, we intend to feature not only locally grown food and value added food items, but also handmade crafts and products. To ensure that this standard is maintained, vendors will be subject to approval based on the products sold. We promise to work as hard as we can to grow this market each year to truly become the resource that it has the potential to be for our residents and visitors.

We will be showcasing and marketing this new and improved farmers market through multiple media platforms not limited to: social media, radio, print, and web, as well as coverage by Channel 6 (viewable via AT&T, Comcast and YouTube). This will bring exceptional exposure for your business!

We will once again be working in partnership with Chicago Street Pub to schedule weekly live music entertainment and beverage options for our visitors - making our markets the place to be again this summer! Family friendly attractions will include programs and entertainment promoting the importance of locally grown food, conservation and sustainability. Partnering with the We WILL Grow School and Community Garden Program, we will have opportunities for local community gardens to be featured at our market at our “Community Table”.
